

Immigration Reform, Civil Liberties, and National Security

The Arab American Institute (AAI) invites you to a community town hall forum with elected officials, policymakers, and community leaders to discuss the different aspects of the immigration debate, including civil liberties and national security, and how they affect our community.

The event will be introduced by Fatima Shama,
Immigrant Affairs Commissioner at the New York City Mayor's Office

WHEN: Wednesday, February 17th
6:00-8:30pm

WHERE: Widdi Hall
5602 6th Ave., Brooklyn, NY 11220

Desserts and Coffee will be provided!

To RSVP for this event, contact Omar Baddar via email at obaddar@aaiusa.org, or by phone at 202.429.9210 (ext. 13) by noon on Tuesday, February 16th.

Cosponsored by:

The Arab American Association of New York (AAANY)

<http://www.arabamericanny.org>

The American Mideast Leadership Network (AMLN)

<http://www.amln.org>

Arab American Family Support Center (AAFSC)

<http://www.aafscny.org>

The Salaam Club of New York

<http://www.salaamclubny.org>

Network of Arab American Professionals (NAAP-New York)

<http://www.naaponline.org/ny>

